6/6/2011

On Thursday, June 2, 2011, officers from the Santa Rosa Police Department conducted an underage decoy operation at "on sale" alcohol establishments within the City of Santa Rosa.

A total of 12 licensed premises or locations were visited by minor decoys in which the decoys attempted to purchase or be furnished an alcoholic beverage. Of the 12 businesses visited, the minor decoys were sold or furnished alcohol at two of those locations. Employees from the following businesses were issued a citation for selling or furnishing alcohol to a minor and released with their written promise to appear in court at a later time:

Stony Point Grill on Stony Point Road

Wing Stop on Stony Point Road

Funds for this operation were provided by a grant from the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control.

The Santa Rosa Police Department will continue to routinely conduct undercover operations with the goal of obtaining compliance from both local businesses and the general public of the laws regarding minors and alcohol.
